Valuation: Document Checklist

Have these ready before we start. A valuation is only as reliable as the information behind it. Tick what you have and share the rest later.

Purpose and basics

- [ ] Purpose of the valuation (fundraise, share transfer, allotment, lender, other)
- [ ] Valuation date
- [ ] Who will rely on the report (investor, bank, board, tax authority)
- [ ] Company name, CIN or registration details, and PAN

Financial information

- [ ] Last 2 to 3 years of financial statements
- [ ] Current-year accounts to date
- [ ] Projections or business plan for the next 3 to 5 years
- [ ] Details of loans, contingent liabilities and related-party dealings

Ownership and business

- [ ] Shareholding pattern and cap table
- [ ] MOA, AOA and any shareholders' agreement
- [ ] Details of products, customers and key contracts
- [ ] Comparable deals or investor offers, if any

Assets

- [ ] Fixed asset register
- [ ] Details of land, buildings, patents, trademarks or other intangibles
- [ ] Stock and receivables summary

This checklist is general guidance. Valuations for income-tax, FEMA or Companies Act purposes must be signed by a Registered Valuer or SEBI-registered Merchant Banker; we prepare the analysis and coordinate signing through our licensed partners.
